ABOUT ME

I'm a professional Front end developer who has been working in the freelance field for over 2+ years. I deal with frontend coding, debugging, designing, implementing the logic, creating & integrating the APIs, connectivity btw frontend & backend APIs, web optimization & SEO base content strategy, etc.

PROJECTS

CandyCrush Game

Developed an engaging Candy Crush-inspired game featuring dynamic candy-matching mechanics. Players strategize to align three identical candies vertically or horizontally, gaining points and advancing through levels.
